Marriage record, Charles Tekaronhiakhen Cook and Anne Kaientison [McDonald]

Le quatorze Septembre mil neuf cent deux, ou le jour de consanguinité collatérale du troisième degré et de deux bans de mariage, accordés par Monsieur Joseph Médard Curé de Valleyfield, ou aussi le diction de troisième ban fait au prône de notre messe paroissiale est Charles Tekaronhiakhen, fils marié de feu Jean Baptiste Tekon-wanhontero et de feu Marie Juste Karonhatis, Sauvages du lieu, d'une part et Anne Kaientison, fille unique de feu Louis Kaminatoron et de Catherine Kainewentha, Sauvages du lieu d'au-tre part, n'étant découvert aucun autre empêchement, nous avons prié le curé, avec dû consentement des parents et tuteurs des deux parties res-pectives, de leur donner le mariage et leur avons donné la bénédiction nuptiale au prône de l'église Tekonwiské et de deux témoins Kainewentha

Marriage record, Charles Tekaronhiakhen Cook and Anne Kaientison [McDonald]

- ▶ November 4th 1902, considering the dispensation for consanguinity of the third degree and for two marriage bans, granted by Monsieigneur Joseph-Médard Emard, Bishop of Valleyfield, considering also the publication of the third ban pronounced at our parish mass, between Charles Tekaronhiakhen, minor son of the defunct Jean Baptiste Tekaionwannhontere and the defunct Marie Josette Karenhatsi, on the one hand, Indians of this parish, and Anne Kaientison, minor daughter of the defunct Louis Kawiratiron and of Catherine Kaionwentha, Indians of this parish, on the other hand, not having discovered any other impediments, I the undersigned pastor priest, having the consent of the parents and guardians of the two parties received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial blessing in the presence of Pierre Sak[oiawisaks?] and of Anastasie Kaieneson, Indians of this place, the first of whom in addition to the bride signed with me, the two others didn't know how to sign their names. Reading given.
