Summary

- Edmund's Birth (c1594) and Early Life in England (Suffolk & Hertfordshire)
- Emigration to Massachusetts Bay Colony 1638, probably first to Watertown, MA
- Life in Sudbury (1639-1656); agricultural practices and land tenure
- Establishing Marlborough (1656-1660)
- Death & legacy (3 May 1663).

Edmund's Early Life in Suffolk

- Born c1594 (possibly Stanstead or Sudbury in Suffolk).
Date of birth deduced from 3 Apr 1656 MA court deposition (62 years of age).
 - Lost records in Stanstead & Sudbury churches for late 1500s
 - No evidence of Edmund's ancestors!
- Married Thomasine Frost (b. 1600), daughter of Edward Frost & Thomasine Belgrave 15 Oct 1618 at St. Mary's Church, Bury St. Edmunds, Suffolk
- First daughter Mary Rice baptized 23 Aug 1619 at St. James' Church, Stanstead, Suffolk

No evidence of Edmund's ancestors!

- Ancestry.com, LDS, & other databases Henry Rice & Elizabeth Frost, Gryffyd ap-Rhys & Catherine Howard as ancestors...no evidence
- Mary Lovering Holman (1933 in TAG) found Henry Rice & E. Frost married in Stanstead Nov 1605 --- Edmund's first child baptized in Stanstead 1619
- Donald Lines Jacobus (1936 in TAG) traced many of the false accounts to the book by Dr. Charles Elmer Rice entitled "By the Name of Rice...", privately published at Alliance, Ohio in 1911
- Dr. Joanna Martin (1997-99) genealogist from Suffolk commissioned by ERA to search out Edmund's parentage. Nothing found.
- Gary Boyd Roberts (1999), New England Historic Genealogical Society, reviewed all data at ERA meeting. Roberts known for research on royal lineages & concluded 'no evidence.'
- ERA genetics project (2000s), Y-chromosome markers don't show markers consistent with Welsh ancestry that would characterize ap-Rhys line (haplogroup I1 vs. R1b)

St. Peter's Church, Berkhamsted, Hertfordshire Edmund's Parish 1626-1638

Mid-19th Century print from Berkhamsted Local History and Museum Society

Edmund's life in Berkhamsted 1626-1638

- Land tenure was 'open-field farming' transitioning to 'closed-field farming' as part of the Enclosure Movement
- Area of 'land rush'
- He acquired & was taxed on 3 acres by 1627
- He held & was taxed on 15 acres 1633-1637
- Held no official office but 1626-34 was joint administrator w/ Rev. Thomas Newman (Rector of St. Peter's) of £50 grant from Charles I
- Had Berkhamsted town-mates later joining him in Sudbury, MA (Thomas Axtell, Robert Darvell, & Philemon Whale)

Edmund's Voyage to New England in 1638

- No record of Edmund's voyage
- Dates deduced from baptismal record for Joseph in Berkhamsted (March 1638) & the records of Sudbury (late March 1639)
- Traveled with his family (Thomasine, Henry, Edward, Thomas, Lydia, Matthew, Samuel & Joseph)
- Approximate fare of passage = £76.8.0 (Source: bill of passage for Peter Noyes, 10 family members, provisions and effects on the ship "Jonathan" on 12 April 1639)
